

Elementary School :: Artwork Examples

▲ Whimsical style artwork.

▲ Doesn't every kid want to be a fireman?

▲ Rutland Elementary school mascot wall art. Can you tell they are the Hurricanes? Does this show school pride or what?

▶ An example of the tremendous detail our artists can provide, as seen at Heritage Elementary School.

▶ This is a 3D combination of painted wall and bas-relief art panels at Heritage Elementary.

▲ Our American heritage art at Heritage Elementary School.

Elementary School :: Artwork Examples

▲ Science themed artwork with flexible, mobile folding tables.

▲ Branding the school cafeteria – even in elementary school – is exciting to students.

▲ A colorful melange of letters and symbols brighten up the wall.

▶ Colorful free form wall art and banners liven up a large cafeteria space.

▼ Multi-cultural artwork that brings a smile along with a message of “hello” in several languages.

Elementary School :: Tabletop Graphics

▲ A long mobile folding table with stools doesn't have to be boring and institutional looking when we use a special graphic tabletop laminate across the entire length of the table.

Elementary School :: Tabletop Graphics

▲ Graphic laminate tabletop art created for Alexander Elementary School.

▲ A multi-state tabletop graphic.

▲ inlaid school mascot logo at Heritage Elementary School.

▲ Colorful graphic tabletop of abstract hurricane artwork at Rutland Elementary.

▲ The Skyview Skyhawk soars in an inlaid tabletop logo.

▲ The Belvedere Elementary school Bee welcoming the staff at lunchtime.

Elementary School Themed Artwork :: Rutland Elementary

▲ Hurricane graphical treatment to the branded “Café” sign.

▼ Artwork on the walls to elevate and inspire the students.

▲► Free form art at Rutland Elementary highlights the hurricane mascot

Elementary School Themed Artwork :: Vineville Elementary

▲ Theatrical art themes at Vineville Elementary School.▲

Elementary School Themed Artwork :: Alexander Elementary

▲ The DNA double helix and science theme art.

▲ Nature artwork at Alexander Elementary School.

◀ What a great way for students to visualize an atom with a ceiling hung décor piece.

▲ 3-D artwork to challenge young minds.

▲ Einstein artwork at a science oriented elementary school.

▲ Colorful menu of the day selection.

▲ The DNA double helix ceiling décor piece at Alexander Elementary School.

Elementary School Themed Artwork :: Burdell Elementary

▲ Hands around the world artwork at Burdell Elementary.

▲ Various examples of whimsical academic themed art for elementary schools.

Elementary School Themed Artwork :: Heritage Elementary

▼ Colorful banners with painted wall artwork.

▲ American themed art at Heritage Elementary and mobile folding tables for multi-purpose use.

▲ The Gateway Arch painted on the wall at Heritage Elementary.

▲ A 3D historic lighthouse is the centerpiece of the room.

▲ Mural painted directly on the wall.

▲ Eagle artwork hand-painted on the wall.

Elementary School Themed Artwork :: Skyview Elementary

At Skyview Elementary School everyone smiles when they walk into the cafeteria. Whimsical academic and lifestyle artwork is both colorful and exciting.

Ceiling Décor Pieces :: Skyview Elementary

Even the ceiling at an elementary school can look attractive with colorful banners and metal grid décor. Just like these birds soaring at Skyview Elementary school!

Ceiling Décor Pieces :: Alexander Elementary

▲▼ The huge ceiling hung 3-D décor piece of the atom (above) and the DNA double helix (below) challenge students at the science and technology oriented Alexander Elementary School.

Special Signage :: Bathroom Signs

▲ Colorful art for bathroom doors carries your mascot around the school.

Elementary Dining Room Concepts for your Schools

▲ A jungle theme for an animal mascot.

▲ A space theme for a science oriented school.

◀ Are you a shark, dolphin, whale or penguin? then you will be right at home under our sea!

Alexander Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Booths along the wall and mobile folding tables in the middle of the room give flexibility in the dining room.

Round tables with school logo inlaid in the tabletops.

Colorful science artwork with wall style settee seating in this technology elementary school

A huge 3-D atom suspended from the ceiling

A multi-colored DNA double helix hangs above the students

A volcano mural hand-painted on the wall with furniture in complementary colors.

This room uses multiple seating styles to enthrall the students.

The menu of the day is clearly displayed.

Our artist designed a bright varied paint pattern for the window frames.

3-D artwork with a magnifying glass and a dragonfly promotes the scientific method.

A graphic tabletop laminate with freeform symbols.

The entire room is a feast for the eyes.

Alexander Elementary School :: Macon, GA

3-D art to encourage students to explore.

The mobile folding stool tables use multi-colored tops for variety.

There is an interesting view from any seat in the room!

The freeform menu clearly shows the daily food selections.

Science encompasses flora and fauna to broaden student understanding of the world.

A combination of art styles — hand-painted art with graphic computer generated pieces.

Closeup of the DNA double-helix suspended from the ceiling.

A five seater booth to fit on the wall space.

Scientific artwork in an interesting presentation.

An ADA accessible tabletop.

Booth seating with ADA accessible area.

Full size graphic tabletops.

Burdell Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Whimsical art for young students with academic themes brighten the wall at Burdell Elementary.

Enclosed trash receptacles in an elementary school — very innovative.

Art to make kids smile.

Natural earth tone colors in the room complement each other.

Technology artwork with hand-painted style.

Hands across the world. We are all connected via technology.

Burdell Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Hand-painted style artwork placed on the wall.

Trash receptacles placed near the exit door.

A 3-D art piece with letters in a multi-layered presentation.

Booths and mobile folding stool tables provide maximum seating.

The branding of an elementary school cafeteria.

Very efficient utilization of space in the room while providing an interesting seating collection.

Heritage Elementary School :: Macon, GA

A combination of hand-painted art on the walls and bas-relief style Mount Rushmore figures.

A huge 3-D lighthouse in the center of the room with a surrounding condiment center island.

The most famous symbol of our heritage in a “coast-to-coast” art piece.

Wherever a student sits in this room, they have a marvelous view of our important United States symbols.

A large mascot logo in the round table.

Mobile folding stool tables in the center of the room for flexibility.

Booths with inlaid tabletop mascot logo — with a soaring eagle!

Tabletop graphic of many states shows in rectangular and round tables.

Heritage Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Our artists use all the wall space to create a stunning display of art for the school to highlight the school spirit of our heritage.

Banners from the ceiling, wall art with our country's symbols and colorful seating combine to make this room an inspiring space.

A combination of mural wall art and hand-painted bas-relief art pieces.

From Washington to Hollywood — students see important symbols of what makes our nation great!

Rutland Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Check out the booths, round tables and rectangular mobile folding tables in the room.

School colors and swirling wind mascot in an oval table in the style of the hurricane.

Banners and wall art showing kids interacting liven up the room.

Bar height round table with a view of the patio area.

Bar height tables use the wall area to add seating capacity.

A bright, colorful room with art and varied table sizes.

Take a look at how the entire room looks! It is a place the kids look forward to dining in!

Inlaid tabletop mascot logo with sparkle glitter metalflake colored seats.

Oval tables give the room a non-traditional look

Granite looking finish on the benches with mascot inlaid tabletops.

Rutland Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Hurricane graphic tabletop on a round mobile folding table.

Sparkle glitter metalflake finish on the seat bottoms.

An entire wall of hurricane mascot artwork in the serving area proudly proclaims that they are Hurricanes!

Booths, sit down height tables and colorful wall art graphics make the room inviting.

Our artists designed an interesting free form painting template for the walls. No more bare white concrete blocks.

Skyview Elementary School :: Macon, GA

The skyview skyhawk soars on an inlaid tabletop logo.

A condiment center with multiple uses.

A prism provides plenty of bright colors. Remember Roy G. Biv?

Throughout this school, we use a variety of table styles and colors to make the room eye catching and thrilling to the students.

Whimsical art styles throughout the dining room complement the colorful wall paint.

THERE IS NOT A DULL WALL IN THE ROOM!

Skyview Elementary School :: Macon, GA

All kids march to a different drum, love to learn and love to eat ice cream!

Throughout the room, your eyes are drawn upwards to see the blue cloud metal décor pieces — and the skyhawks flying above.

Mobile folding tables with attached stools provide a high level of flexibility in the room.

If you were an elementary school kid, wouldn't you think this art was cool?

Vineville Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Where is it written that long mobile folding tables with attached stools have to be boring? Not when you have your school mascot made into the tabletop!

Enclosed trash receptacles in an Elementary School? It sure is more appealing than big open garbage cans.

Stool tables provide maximum seating capacity.

A special graphic enclosure for the TV looks like center stage.

Stage-like TV enclosures and sparkle metalflake glitter backs on the booths make this performing arts Elementary School into a theatre.

The masks of comedy and tragedy on the tabletops, theatrical art on the walls and greek theatre columns. The whole room screams — we love to perform!

Vineville Elementary School :: Macon, GA

Even the traditional stage curtains in a non-traditional draping gives the room a special feeling.

Note the flowers on the tables. This is a simple touch to really make the space feel like a dining room — not a yucky cafeteria.

A panoramic view of the room and all the interesting architectural touches throughout — including a cabinet with theatrical props (shows on the wall at the right).

Addison Mizner Elementary School :: Boca Raton, FL

◀ Bright and colorful booths in school colors using sparkling metalflake glitter finish provide a special reward seating area for students.

▶ The “Happy Marlin” school mascot logo smiles at the kids from their tabletop.

◀ A large 4 foot diameter round “Happy Marlin” mascot is prominently displayed on the serving line wall. Note the marlin’s powerful bill “protruding” through the school name.